What's the difference between a bridle and a halter? Just a bit of difference.—Columbian Saturday Night.

"Sale boy" shouted a hardware clerk as he sold another planting implement.—Cincinnati Saturday Night.

When we asked our girl to marry us she said she didn't mind—and we have since found out that she don't.—Idaho American.

Why does the Niagara tumble so in its bed?—Arden as Tracer. Because it has a considerable drink in its head. Next—Wheeling Sunday Journal.

A patent medicine firm have christened their latest compound, "Buck," and are now readying the full benefit of the standard quotation, "Buck, is life."—Tulsa American.

"There," triumphantly exclaimed a Dead-wood editor, as a bullet came through the window and shattered the inkstand, "I knew that new 'Personal' column would be a success."

"Your arguments are sound, my son, and delivered with force," said the clergyman to his boy, who had been hanging away at his drum for an hour or more, "but we have heard enough on that head." The boy stopped at once, with the aid of his mother and the hired girl.

Texas Springs tells of a card-playing clergyman, who, on a recent Sunday just before the services began, was approached by the organist, who asked, referring to the opening hymn: "What shall I play?" "What kind of a hand have you got?" was the abrupt and terse response.

W. J. "Bill," Bill, have you seen the two-headed lady? It can cry with each mouth." "Bill," I've seen and heard the one-headed variety; that's enough for me.—Philadelphia Item. How could a fellow hold a lamp and at the same time feed it crackers and milk with two spoons?—Tulsa American.

When we look back over the early years of our life, we recall now how kind and thoughtful our dear mother was. She always bought a fine-tooth comb and made us a new pair of pants every time we ran away from home, knowing well that we would need them both when we returned, after a week or month's starving and roughing it, and went around in the alley behind the house and sent our little sister in to tell her we had come back. Such is a mother's love.—Tulsa American.

Snickerdome came into the house last evening with a three inch and a half smile playing upon his countenance. "Hullo," said he, "where was best the highest? When the cow jumped over the moon. Ha! ha! ha!" "There, there," said his wife, "just hold that expression a minute. It reminds me of your great-grandfather's looks when he had to laugh at the self-same joke." Snickerdome simply retorted by referring to his wife's "good memory for one who likes to be thought young," and dropped the laugh.

WELL INDORSED BY OUR OWN CITIZENS.
No matter how useful anything may be in itself, good indorsements come to increase its usefulness greatly by insuring a wider field for the display of its special merits. We were thus impressed in view of the following statements received by one of our representatives from leading individuals connected with some of the largest enterprises in our midst. Among others whose testimony was freely given was W. H. Stearns, Esq., Master Mechanic of the Conn. River Railroad, residing at No. 28 Boylston Street, who observed:—

"St. Jacobs Oil has had remarkable effect in curing the men employed here. One of them jammed his arm very badly, and by the use of St. Jacobs Oil was greatly benefited, and the arm was healed. Another used it for severe rheumatic pain in the knee, and pronounced the Oil a complete success as he was cured by its use. Mr. A. B. Taylor, of the 'Ray & Taylor Manufacturing Co.' was pleased to say: 'My aunt, Mrs. Pillsbury, of Mount Chair, N. J., while visiting at our house tried St. Jacobs Oil for rheumatism and neuralgia, and found immediate relief every time. She pronounced it the best thing she had ever tried for the trouble. Mr. J. B. Weston, 45 Greenwood Street, Supr. Car Works, Boston & Albany Railroad, thus addressed our reporter: 'I am one more of the fortunate who have had the good luck to hear of that wonderful remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. I had rheumatism in the shoulder severely and could find no relief until I used the Oil. I applied it and most success I was surprised at the results. I am almost well and expect to be entirely so in a few days.'—Springfield (Mass.) Union.

London Punch:—"Pat, Jr. (in answer to inquiry by Society)—There's twice of us, yer Honor, as the baby." Saxon—"And are you the eldest?" Pat, Jr.—"I am, yer Honor, at present."

The St. Louis (Mo.) Post-Dispatch at the close of a long article says: In fact St. Jacobs Oil is pushing all other remedies out of the field, and, excellent though some of the ingredients formerly offered are, the efficacy of St. Jacobs Oil is magical in cases of sciatica, rheumatism, pleurisy, neuralgia, nervous headache, lumbago and scores of other disorders while in the case of sprains, burns or injuries it is an absolute panacea, and for general use is better than the advice of many physicians. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

A man with a small salary and a large family says if pride goes before a fall, he would like to see pride start out a little ahead of the price of coal and provisions.—Boston Commercial Advertiser.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.
William J. Conklin, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with rheumatism of the loins followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and sleep, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said there was no hope, and that I was a half-dead man. At one time I went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I bought a bottle, and to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to day I feel better than for three years past.

I write this hoping every one afflicted with Rheumatism will take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicine I have taken since my sickness.

Carriage Manufacturer,
Cor. Plum and 12th Sts.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

This firm is now in its sixth year of existence, and the rapid and permanent growth it has made is something unprecedented in the history of carriage building. Its permanency and growth have been accomplished, not by any special effort at "drumming" the trade, but by the excellence of the work produced, and by the low price at which this work has been sold. Another great feature of its success is in the style of the work produced. It is too often the case that in low priced work the style is correspondingly low or common in appearance. But all goods manufactured by T. T. Haydock, are made in a stylish and artistic manner, thus adding beauty to quality. This firm does not build the lowest grade, nor the lowest priced work in the market by any means, but in making a specialty of a medium grade full leather top buggy at a very low price for the quality; and is offering special inducements to the trade to buy in large quantities.
